

From the Desk of Chief Deputy Jeffrey J. McAtee

On Tuesday, August 26, 2014, the Harrison County Street Crime and Drug Unit (SCAD) assisted by the Lewis County Sheriff's Department and the Salem Police Department's K-9 Unit executed a search warrant on a residence on Charleston Ave., Clarksburg, WV.

Earlier Tuesday, Lewis County Sheriff Adam Gissy and his deputies conducted a buy bust drug operation involving heroin in Lewis County. After making their arrest, Lewis County Deputies learned that the heroin they had seized was purchased at the Charleston Ave., Clarkburg, location. Lewis County Deputies then relayed their information to the Harrison County SCAD Unit which enabled them (SCAD) to obtain a search warrant.

At Approximately 7:40pm, Deputies from both Lewis County and the Harrison County SCAD Unit along with the Salem K-9 Unit executed the search warrant on the Charleston Ave. residence. As a result of this search warrant deputies located approximately 5 grams of raw heroin, 225 Oxycodone (percocet) pain pills, 448 Hydrocodone pain pill and 105 xanax pills. The estimated street value of the seized heroin and pills is approximately $16,000.

Arrested at the Charleston Ave. residence were Emmitt R. Richardson aka "Jimmy Cool" and Danielle Hulley. Richardson is 41 years old and is from Detroit, MI. Hulley is 29 year old and resides at the Charleston Street, Clarksburg, residence.

Emmitt R. Richardson aka "Jimmy Cool" was charged with possession with intent to distribute heroin, possession with intent to distribute Hydrocodone, possession with intent to distribute Oxycodone, possession with intent to distribute Xanax, delivery of heroin, conspiracy to deliver heroin, and four (4) counts of interstate transportation of controlled substances with intent to distribute. All charges are felonies.

Danielle Hulley was charged with possession with intent to distribute heroin, possession with intent to distribute Tramadol, and conspiracy to distribute heroin, all felony charges.

Both Richardson and Hulley were transported to the North Central Regional Jail to await arraignment by a Harrison County Magistrate.

--

Chief Deputy Jeffrey J. McAtee
Harrison County Sheriff's Dept.